Dear Penfield

H.S. Filigener

Two days ago I had the bright idea of sending you a telegram on the day of the opening of the institute to wish you luck. After a latency of 2 days I looked up the date and then found that it had taken one day for the idea to get from the subconscious to the conscious in addition to the 2 days required for 'externalisation'.

Apart from this latency I should have been in time. Best wishes anyway to you & Russell.

I am afraid I shall not be able to take Pechlin unless various other people fail to materialise. There isn't room in my schedule for additional
