Dear Dr. Penfield:

Before Mr. Myers left on his vacation, he asked me to prepare and send you the enclosed application for the payment of your award made by the Mixed Claims Commission. He has been holding the application for some time because he wanted you to have the money about the approximate time when you return to America. In the mean time the money draws interest at the rate of 5%.

If you will kindly sign the application where indicated on the third page thereof, and also execute the affidavit at the bottom of said page before a diplomatic or consular officer of the United States, and return the same to me, I will immediately file it with the Mixed Claims Commission.

Very truly yours,

John R. Yates.
