

WESTERN CANADA LOTTERY FOUNDATION

NINTH ANNUAL REPORT/APRIL 1, 1982 TO MARCH 31, 1983

CHAIRMAN'S REPORT

Wm. (BILL) CLARKE

The fiscal year ending March 31st, 1983 was one of considerable change and development for the Foundation, with two major projects being implemented throughout the course of the year.

The first project saw the Foundation enter into the field of "on-line gaming" with the introduction of the Canada-wide LOTTO 6/49 game. As well, major changes in the traditional game distribution network led to the establishment of eight regional distribution centres throughout Western Canada.

Sales performances continued to improve. Total sales increased from $210 million to just over $237 million, or 13%. Of this $27 million growth in sales, the majority can be attributed to the introduction of the LOTTO 6/49 game in June 1982. The combined traditional games — WESTERN EXPRESS, PROVINCIAL and SUPER LOTO, enjoyed relative sales stability from the previous fiscal year. In addition, instant game sales in those authorizing provinces were very successful.

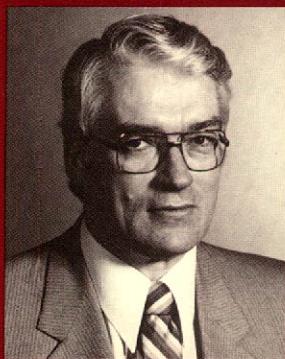

Total operating revenue increased to over $69 million while the Western Canada payment to the Federal Government, under the 1979 agreement, increased to over $12.5 million.

Continued sales growth, planned cost control efficiencies, and the anticipated levelling of inflation is expected to result in a record level of revenue available for distribution to the four member provinces of the Foundation during the fiscal year 1984.

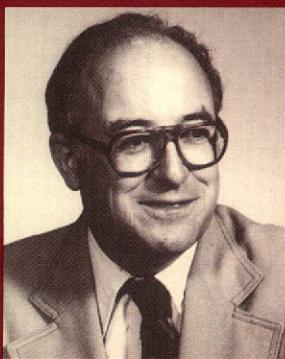

Yours sincerely,

W Clarke

AUDITORS' REPORT

To the Members of the
Western Canada Lottery Foundation:

We have examined the combined balance sheet of the Western Canada Lottery Foundation and its related lottery organizations as at March 31, 1983 and the combined statement of operations for the year then ended. Our examination was made in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards, and accordingly included such tests and other procedures as we considered necessary in the circumstances.

In our opinion, these combined financial statements present fairly the financial position of the Western Canada Lottery Foundation and its related lottery organizations as at March 31, 1983 and the results of its operations for the year then ended in accordance with the accounting principles described in note 2 to the combined financial statements applied on a basis consistent with that of the preceding year.

Winnipeg, Canada,
June 10, 1983.

Clarkson Gordon
Chartered Accountants.

WESTERN CANADA LOTTERY FOUNDATION AND ITS RELATED LOTTERY ORGANIZATIONS NOTES TO COMBINED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

MARCH 31, 1983

1. Nature of the Foundation

The Western Canada Lottery Foundation was incorporated under Part II of the Canada Corporations Act on May 13th, 1974. The Provincial Governments of Manitoba, Saskatchewan, Alberta, and British Columbia are members in the Foundation, and the Yukon Territory and the Northwest Territories participate with them as associate members in the sale of lottery tickets.

Under the terms of its incorporation, the Foundation is responsible for the conduct and management of lottery games in Western Canada. The WESTERN EXPRESS and instant lottery games are conducted solely by the Foundation and the Foundation participates in the conduct of the PROVINCIAL, SUPER LOTO, and LOTTO 6/49 lotteries through the Interprovincial Lottery Corporation. The Interprovincial Lottery Corporation is incorporated under the Canada Business Corporation Act, and its shares are held by Her Majesty the Queen in right of the respective provinces. The Western Canada Lottery Foundation is the Regional Marketing Organization for the PROVINCIAL, SUPER LOTO, and LOTTO 6/49 in the four western provinces. The Ontario Lottery Corporation, Loto-Québec, and the Atlantic Lottery Corporation are the Regional Marketing Organizations in Ontario, Quebec and the Atlantic provinces, respectively.

2. Accounting principles

The financial statements of the Foundation have been prepared in accordance with accounting principles that are considered appropriate for an organization of this type. The more significant of these accounting principles are summarized below:

(a) Principles of combination

In addition to the financial position of the Western Canada Lottery Foundation and the results of its operations, the combined financial statements include the costs of delivery of lottery tickets incurred by related lottery organizations in each province or territory and their related assets and liabilities.

(b) Accounting for the expenses of the PROVINCIAL and SUPER LOTO

As the Foundation is a Regional Marketing Organization for the PROVINCIAL and SUPER LOTO, it purchases PROVINCIAL and SUPER LOTO tickets from the Interprovincial Lottery Corporation. The net cost of these tickets ($59,773,069), and the Foundation's share of the Interprovincial Lottery Corporation's administrative and advertising expenses ($853,727), and interest revenue ($3,292,946), are reflected in the expenses and interest revenue in the combined statement of operations.

WESTERN CANADA LOTTERY FOUNDATION AND ITS RELATED LOTTERY ORGANIZATIONS NOTES TO COMBINED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS (cont'd.)

MARCH 31, 1983

(c) Deferred revenue

Revenue and expenses related to draws held during the year ended March 31, 1983 are included in the combined statement of operations on an accrual basis. Net receipts from the sale of lottery tickets related to drawings held subsequent to March 31, 1983 have been recorded as deferred revenue.

(d) Capital expenditures

Fixed asset purchases which materially affect income are capitalized and depreciated on a straight line basis over a period of five years. Other capital expenditures are charged to current operations at the time of acquisition.

3. Lottery sales

Sales revenue by product is as follows:

	1983	1982
WESTERN EXPRESS	$ 80,839,725	$ 89,394,597
PROVINCIAL	55,526,530	59,583,730
SUPER LOTO	66,435,060	58,605,640
LOTTO 6/49	27,937,891
Instant	6,685,361	2,983,100
	$237,424,567	$210,567,067

4. Sales and distribution expenses and comparative figures

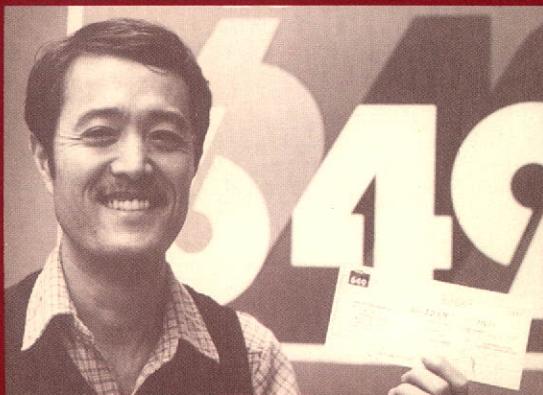

Sales and distribution expenses include distributor commissions in the amount of $3,134,311 and expenses of related lottery organizations in the amount of $6,988,790. The distributor commissions represent monies paid to distributors in certain jurisdictions prior to a change in the system of ticket distribution. Related lottery organizations are now responsible for the distributor function.

Comparative figures are not presented primarily because the costs of distributing tickets for the previous year are not available on a comparable basis to those presented in the current year.

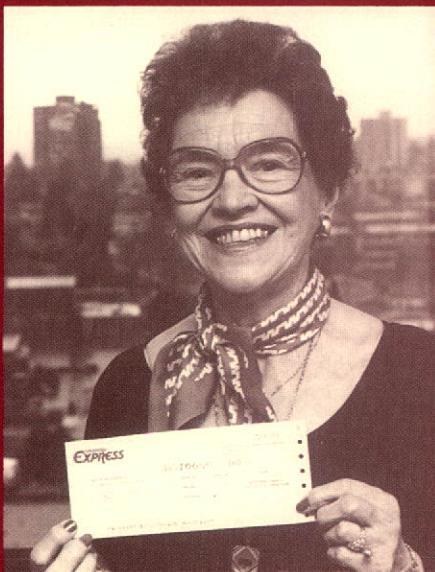

5. Payment to the Federal Government

The Interprovincial Lottery Corporation has agreed to make quarterly payments of $6 million in 1979 dollars to the Government of Canada as a result of an agreement between the Provincial Governments and the Federal Government on the withdrawal of the Federal Government from the lottery field. The Foundation, as a Regional Marketing Organization of the Interprovincial Lottery Corporation, has been directed and has agreed to remit the four western provinces' share of the above payments to the Interprovincial Lottery Corporation based on its proportionate share of the sales of the PROVINCIAL and SUPER LOTO lotteries (which in the 1983 fiscal year represented 39 percent).

SOME WINNERS

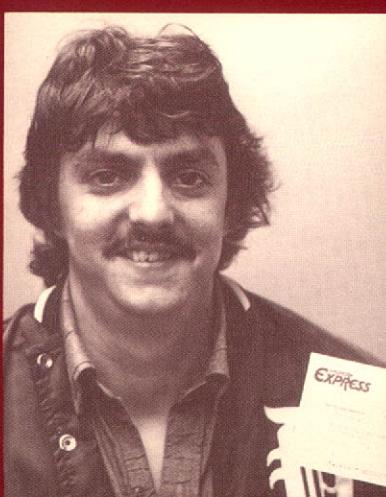

Mr. Takashi Yamaki of Vancouver, British Columbia, a silk screener, prints window decals for the LOTTO 6/49 game. On March 5th, he was holding a cheque with the familiar LOTTO 6/49 logo in the corner — a cheque worth $125,912.70.

Mrs. Florence Marshall of Burnaby, British Columbia, has been buying WESTERN EXPRESS tickets since the lottery began. Her persistence finally paid off on March 16, 1983, when she won $10,000!

Six young men, all residents of the Vancouver, British Columbia area, and all employees of Richmond Imports, journeyed to Winnipeg to collect the $500,000 prize they won on the March 25th PROVINCIAL draw! These six happy men are Robert Warren, Craig Revill, Rob Reynolds, Bill Dieleman, Tony Carr and Steve Greenway.

What started out to be a quiet evening of watching television, turned into a night of song and celebration that Jim Campbell will remember for a long time. The twenty-four year old Victoria, British Columbia resident was watching the February 23rd "WINSDAY" program when he discovered he was a $100,000 prize winner!

Lucien Cusson was all smiles when he arrived in Winnipeg to claim his $500,000 prize for the March 18, 1983 PROVINCIAL. The thirty-five year old Edmonton, Alberta resident said he plans to purchase his first home with his winnings.

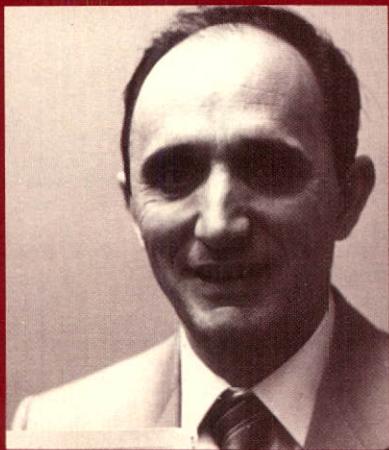

MORE WINNERS

Olaf Olafson of Burnaby, British Columbia, expects to use some of his $100,000 February 27, 1983 SUPER LOTO prize for a trip to his native Norway.

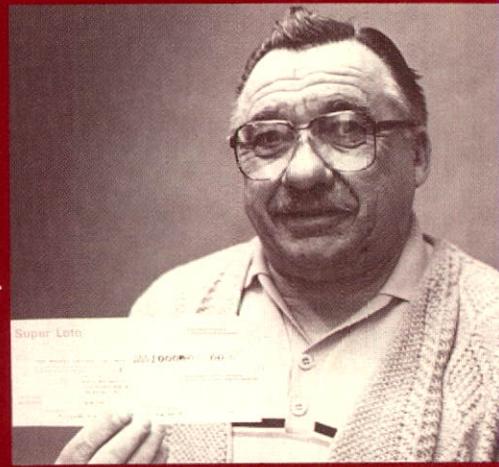

Mrs. Lorraine Foster of Edmonton, Alberta, beams a smile of prosperity as she proudly displays her $100,000 prize won on the January 26, 1983 WESTERN EXPRESS draw.

◀ Forty-six year old Guenter Breuer's instinct paid off when he correctly selected five out of six regular numbers and the bonus number for the January 15th LOTTO 6/49 draw. The Surrey, British Columbia resident collected $27,854.10 for his efforts.

Fred Malowski said he wanted to see the "color of his money" before he got excited about his $100,000 lottery win! Once the Dauphin, Manitoba, resident had his February 27, 1983 SUPER LOTO cheque in hand, it was easy to see he was a pretty excited gentleman! ▶

Brisham Prasad of Vancouver, British Columbia, always seems to be one number out from winning a major prize. On the November 5, 1982, PROVINCIAL draw it happened again. This time, however, it was the first digit he missed, which meant a nice windfall worth $50,000!

Klondike Mike Strikes Gold! Bob Breen of Edmonton, Alberta, known to most as Klondike Mike, held a winning ticket for the December 22, 1982 WESTERN EXPRESS draw worth $100,000!

Joyce Kettles and Jim McGregor said they had "that winning feeling" going into the March 27, 1983 SUPER LOTO draw. The Camrose, Alberta residents' premonition proved correct — their ticket was good for a $1 Million grand prize!

"When I turn sixty-five, I am going to be a happy old lady without a worry in the world," said Mrs. Madeleine Fillion. The Winnipeg, Manitoba, resident said she plans to invest her November 26, 1982 PROVINCIAL prize of $50,000 in a term deposit for her retirement.

Mr. George Curle purchased the last remaining ticket at a stationery store for the December 1, 1982 WESTERN EXPRESS draw. The ticket may have been the last, but it certainly wasn't the least — the Swan River, Manitoba family arrived at the prize payout centre to claim $100,000!

James and Emma Spencer of Saskatoon, Saskatchewan are convinced luck runs in threes. The first of the three tickets the couple purchased for the February 18, 1983 draw, contained a $5 bearer cheque, the second a $50 bearer cheque and the third was a grand prize winner of $50,000 on the PROVINCIAL!

Mrs. Edna Clovis's horoscope for January 5, 1983, read "Doors will be wide open". And so they were at the Western Canada Lottery Foundation when she and her husband Les of Calgary, Alberta, claimed the $100,000 'WINSDAY' prize!

Tom and Carol Loader of Golden, British Columbia had big plans for their January 19, 1983 WESTERN EXPRESS $100,000 win! The young couple will be buying their first home with their windfall.

Janet Wiebe and Roy Hildebrand of Gouletown, Saskatchewan plan to be married next year. The $10,000 prize that the happy couple won on the October 27th WESTERN EXPRESS Draw will be used toward their wedding.

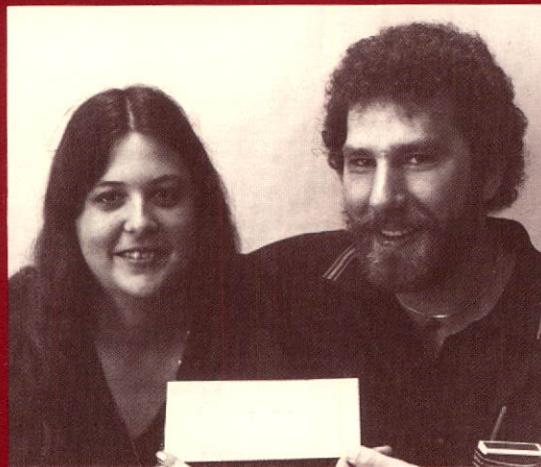

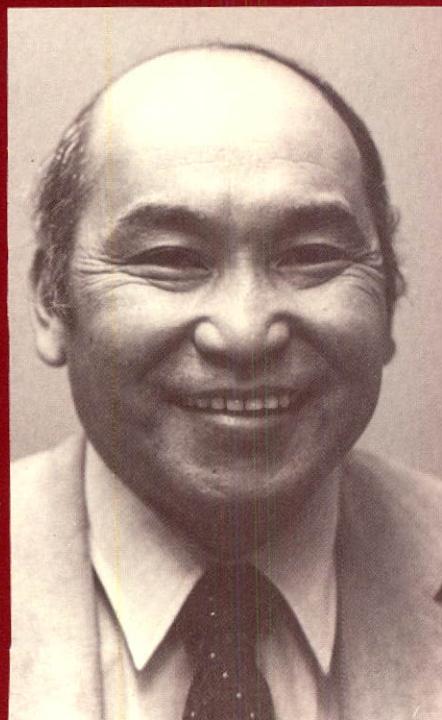

Elsa Ranjo of Winnipeg, Manitoba has big plans for her August 18, 1982 $10,000 WESTERN EXPRESS win. The nurses aid is flying home to her native Phillipines to visit her family and friends.

◀ Charles Maxwell's search for a January 26th WESTERN EXPRESS ticket wasn't in vain. The final JACKPOT draw was to be held on that date and the Vancouver, British Columbia resident had to search long and hard for a Retailer with tickets. The end result, however, was a most satisfying win of $100,000!

Walter Lasiuk, an agricultural technician with the Federal Government, was still in shock when he and his wife, Joan, came to Winnipeg to collect their major prize. The Saskatoon, Saskatchewan residents won $100,000 on the November 10, 1982 WESTERN EXPRESS draw!

Ken Yoshioka is happy with the $1,152,467.20 cheque he received. Ken and his wife Ruby, of Lethbridge, Alberta, correctly predicted the six out of six winning numbers on the January 29, 1983 LOTTO 6/49 draw!

Robert and Louise Thiesen of Salmon Arm, British Columbia couldn't be happier about their June 27, 1982 $100,000 SUPER LOTO win. The couple plans to add their winnings to the $1,000 they won on the May SUPER LOTO draw and put it towards buying property.
