AUDITORS' REPORT TO THE SHAREHOLDERS

To the Shareholders of The Bank of Toronto:

We have examined the books and accounts of The Bank of Toronto at its Head Office and have been furnished with certified returns from the branches, and certify that the above statement of liabilities and assets as at 30th November, 1928, is in accordance therewith and in our opinion discloses the true condition of the Bank. The Bank's investments and the cash on hand at the Head Office and at the Toronto and Montreal Branches were verified by us as at 30th November, 1928. We have received all the information and explanations we have required, and all transactions of the Bank which have come under our notice have in our opinion been within the powers of the Bank.

PRESIDENT'S ADDRESS

My first word to you today must be an expression of satisfaction and thankfulness. The rising tide of prosperity to which we have referred at our Annual Meetings for some years past has continued during the year just closed, and many new peaks have been established.

Field crops in all the Provinces have been good, although early frosts in the West reduced yields and grades, and grain prices are lower than a year ago. Agriculture, however, has enjoyed a succession of good years, and is now in excellent financial condition. This industry is, and will probably remain, the most important single factor in our economic situation, and it is therefore good to see conditions for the farmer improving, not only financially but in all those things which add to the measure of comfort available to him.

Manufacturing lines have on the whole enjoyed a good year. In construction there has been unusual activity, while the orders handled by the iron and steel companies, railway equipment and similar basic industries have also been very large. It is seldom, of course, that all our industries are prosperous together. At the present time the newsprint companies are in a period of over-capacity and price-cutting, from which we can only hope that they may emerge on terms which will permit of stable operation.

Mining steadily makes new records, and we continue to be optimistic in regard to the future of this industry. The mineral output for 1928 shows a gain of 10% over 1927, and there are a number of mines in process of development which should be of importance within a few years. Increasing attention is being directed to the base metals, and it is likely that Canada will shortly occupy an even more important place in the world's output of nickel, copper, lead and zinc. This not only broadens our mining industries, but also suggests a basis for much greater development of the metal and chemical industries.

Foreign trade statistics continue to make a satisfactory exhibit. During a period of five years ending 31st October last, our exports show a gain of twenty-four per cent and our entire foreign trade a gain of thirty-four per cent. Cumulative favorable balances for the same period amount to over One billion and one-quarter million dollars. These facts alone tell the story of our material progress during recent years.

This being a new country and not one-quarter filled, the question of increasing our population continues to be of first importance. The progress made since the war is admittedly not satisfying. Possibly our efforts are being limited too much to the British-born. Possibly, also, we are overly afraid of a certain amount of seasonal unemployment. On the other hand, it is better to be patient than to flood the country with people who will not be self-sustaining when here, or to admit those whose political ideals are radically different from our own. A year ago we suggested that the natural advantages of this country, if properly advertised, would gradually attract the right kind of immigration in increasing numbers, and we still have confidence in this view. In the meantime, we must be content to make haste more slowly than we could wish.

One of the most satisfactory features of the year is the substantial improvement in railway earnings, both gross and net. The National System may now be said to be out of the woods and a real asset to the country. Canada is growing up to her railways, as we ventured a few years ago to say would be the case.

The benefits of scientific research, not so long ago almost exclusively at the disposal of wealthy corporations able to command the services of scientists and to equip their own laboratories, are being more widely extended through Governmental agencies and through industrial co-operation.

No effort is likely to give greater rewards in the discovery and application of new materials, processes and economies, and in combating disease inimical to plant and animal life, and increasing the productivity of the soil. The noticeable gains in wealth and the improved standard of living in progressive countries are traceable largely to the work of the scientific investigator. The attention and support now being given to this subject promises very important commercial benefits to this country within the next few years.

Runaway stock markets have featured the year, particularly in New York. There is a basis for some increase in the general level. Industrial corporations are more progressive than was the case some years ago; management is more scientific and more open minded; operations are being subjected to the most keen analysis, economies are being introduced, science and invention encouraged, and while the wage-earner and the consumer also benefit, surpluses and equities are being built up. It is only natural and proper that increasing equities and earning power should be reflected in the level of share prices, but after all favorable factors are considered, it is probable that speculation has carried the market too high. As to this, it is doubtless idle for me to express an opinion, as the counsels of caution have little honor with the speculative public. One feature of the situation, however, is clearly evident—the absorption of vast sums in stock speculation has curtailed the supply of funds available for strictly investment securities and caused a fall in prices. This is not good for business, as there is a tendency to hold up projects involving long-term financing. There has, however, been no scarcity of bank credits for what we call legitimate purposes; that is, the production and distribution of goods.

Savings deposits in the banks, from which source advances to the agricultural and commercial activities of the country are chiefly supplied, show yearly increases averaging 78 millions of dollars for the past three years, and over 100 millions for the last year. Advances of the classes to which we have referred are, however, showing a tendency to expand even more rapidly, the yearly increase over the same period of three years averaging 106 millions of dollars and 164 millions during the twelve months ending October last. Bankers are therefore likely to become increasingly critical of the use of credits for speculative purposes.

The completion of another bank amalgamation during the year now leaves only ten banks in the field. There is sometimes heard the suggestion that banks in our class in point of size may have difficulty in holding their own against the larger institutions. We have no apprehension whatever on this score. In the five years just passed public deposits in all the banks, excluding foreign branches, have increased by 32%. Our own increase has been 36%. Looking back over a ten year period we find that our increase has been 49% against 30% shown by all the banks.

The very large bank possesses some advantages, chief of which is in being more conspicuous, but there are compensating advantages to the bank of moderate size, and it has, in fact, been our experience that destructive competition comes not from the strong and well-established banks. A few years ago there was undoubtedly a too competitive situation in Canadian banking—too many banks and too many branches. There are still too many branches, but the situation has been improved to the advantage not only of the remaining banks, but of the country. No banking monopoly can, of course, arise, since any group of men who think that there exists a public need and that therefore profits can be made by a new bank, and who apply under proper conditions, will doubtless receive a Charter.

In view of the expansion of our business during recent years it was felt that we were outgrowing our capital, and during the year, as you know, ten thousand new shares were offered to shareholders at $200. per share, in the proportion of one new share for each five old.

THE BANK OF TORONTO

We are pleased to be able to advise you that the new shares have practically all been taken up and 80% paid in full on the day the allotment became effective.

The new capital places us close to the top of the list in point of percentage of shareholders' investment to public liabilities.

In conclusion, let me say to you that as a Bank we enter the new year with confidence. Our business is clean, our earning power progressive and our reserves increasing, and perhaps best of all we number a growing list of friends who find our service satisfactory and with whom our relations are intimate and cordial. We like to think that our Bank possesses an individuality of its own, and some good qualities peculiar to ourselves. At least we endeavor to give intelligent, sympathetic and painstaking banking service, and in so doing build up that important, if intangible, asset known as good-will, from which we derive increasing public support as well as great personal satisfaction.

GENERAL MANAGER'S ADDRESS

MR. CHAIRMAN AND GENTLEMEN:

The 73rd Annual Balance Sheet of your Bank, covering our operations for the year ending 30th November last, which is before you, shows very satisfactory results, and I think may be taken as some reflection of the continued prosperity of Canada during the past year.

Our funds have been actively employed throughout the year, and we have been fortunate in having a pretty clean sheet as to losses.

After making ample provision for all known or anticipated losses, we have been able to bring down net earnings of $1,264,970.82, of which, after providing for a dividend of 12% and bonus of 1%, and the amounts necessary for taxes, officers' pension fund and an appropriation for our Bank Premises, there remains the sum of $254,970.82, which, added to the sum of $646,204.29 carried over from last year, enables us to carry into the new year the sum of $901,175.11 at the credit of Profit and Loss account.

Touching the important items in the statement, I might say that our total assets at the close of our year stood at $135,273,454.52. Of this amount $61,088,532.96 or 49.92% of our total liabilities to the public, was represented by liquid assets composed of cash, notes of and cheques on other banks, balances due by other banks, high-grade Dominion, Provincial and Canadian municipal securities, British and foreign securities, Railway Bonds, Debentures and Stocks, Call and Short loans in Canada against bonds, debentures and stocks, all of which could be easily and quickly converted into cash. These securities have been valued in our statement on a very conservative basis.

Current Loans and Discounts, including the sum of $5,451.34, representing non-current loans, stood at $67,921,525.81, an increase over the figures of a year ago of $2,240,181.98. This is the department of banking wherein the greatest risks necessarily have to be taken; losses occur in spite of the closest scrutiny and supervision of loans, often unavoidable owing to circumstances beyond our control, but from my more intimate knowledge of our business during the past year I can say that not only this year but as a matter of fixed policy for many years, the reserves set up against our loans and discounts amply protect us in such contingencies as I have mentioned.

Bank Premises account stood at $3,287,387.81, a slight decrease for the year of $23,884.98. We are never done with the expense of building, and renewing, and I foresee that in 1929 our expenses in this direction may be heavier than usual. The value of our properties as set down in the statement is not over 50% of their cost.

Among the important items in the Liability column, notes of the Bank in the hands of the public stood at $9,090,028.00, or $4,090,028.00 more than our paid up Capital. This excess amount is provided for by deposit of

THE BANK OF TORONTO

Dominion notes and gold, dollar for dollar, with the Dominion Government for the protection of the public, and constitutes one of the reasons for the recent increase in our paid up Capital.

Deposits at $105,326,798.52 are $4,024,148.89 above any previous figures—at least a moderate improvement, probably modified to some extent by the heavy withdrawals during the year of previous balances for investment purposes. The number of our depositors, however, has steadily increased.

Our Capital and Surplus over all liabilities to the public stands at $12,901,175.11, equivalent to 12.24% of our liability to our depositors. It has been a matter of some satisfaction to us that for many years the Capital and Surplus of The Bank of Toronto has always been maintained at a somewhat higher percentage to our Deposits than the average shown by all Canadian Banks.

The President in his address has covered the general business conditions in Canada during the past year. If I may, I would like to say a few words regarding our Foreign Trade:

During the year ending October 31st last, our foreign trade reached the very large sum of $2,560,808,000.

Our sales abroad were.....$1,358,504,000
Our purchases abroad were.....1,202,305,000

Leaving a balance of trade in our favor of.....156,199,000

Our trade by countries was divided as follows:

WE SOLD TO	MILLIONS	WE BOUGHT FROM	MILLIONS	BALANCE AS AGAINST	IN OUR FAVOR
United States	513,000,000	U. S. A.	806,000,000	293,000,000
United Kingdom	455,000,000	U. K.	192,000,000		263,000,000
Other Countries	391,000,000	Other	205,000,000		186,000,000
	1,359,000,000		1,203,000,000	293,000,000	449,000,000

These figures are very interesting in that they give us an indication of the direction of our trade—where we buy and where we sell.

One would say that an ideal position of our trade with any country would be a fairly even balance between what they buy from us and what we buy from them.

Our Foreign trade is not as well balanced as it might be.

The United Kingdom bought from us $263,000,000 more goods than we have bought from them. Foreign countries, other than the United States, have bought $186,000,000 more of our goods than we have bought from them, and of the total of our favorable trade balances represented by these figures, $449,000,000, we are obliged to use $293,000,000 to pay for our excess purchases from the United States.

The United States sells more goods to Canada each year than to any other country in the world, but unfortunately with twelve times the buying power on a basis of population, they bought $293,000,000 less of our goods last year than we bought from them. It is natural that these two countries adjoining each other across a continent should trade together, but it is not good business for us that we should have to take from our favorable balances of trade with other countries to pay for excess purchases of American goods. Our neighbors to the South should correct this by buying more from us, but if it does not suit them to bring this situation more into adjustment in a way that will at least put our trade with each other on a more even basis, it would seem that this country must try to increase its sales elsewhere by diverting as much as possible of its excess purchases from the United States to those countries who are better customers of ours in order to reciprocate as fully as possible their purchases from us.

There are many reasons why we should increase our purchases from the United Kingdom. We take some pride in the fact that we are a part of the British Empire; they are our people, our destinies are bound up together. Since the great war Great Britain has been putting forth strenuous efforts to restore her foreign trade. The Empire Marketing Board has been doing its utmost to further the development of trade within the Empire, and it is here that we can help them, in this great struggle. I believe in Empire trade. After the stupendous losses in the great war it seems to me, if we recognize our obligations to our own people in Great Britain who will for years bear the brunt of taxation that is today a serious burden to them, the very least we can do is to divert as much of our foreign purchases as possible to British Empire goods. In this way the profit on these goods will go to our own people, and I believe to the extent that we are able to follow this policy we shall never have cause to complain that Empire purchases from Canada are not adequate to offset our purchases.

From the sentimental angle, we like to think that goods produced within the British Empire, including Canadian made goods, carry the hall mark of real value with their price ticket, and to the extent that we need goods made in other parts of the British Empire I am sure our people will readily give preference to goods displayed as British Empire products.

We are now under way in a new trade agreement with the West Indies, which is being implemented by a fine steamship refrigerator service, operated in conjunction with our National Railways. I believe that our trade under this agreement is capable of considerable increase, and will mean much in the development of greater Empire trade as well as increased traffic for our Railway Systems, but we must not view it from the angle of our export trade only. We must make a careful survey of the goods these Islands produce, and divert as much of our purchases to them as possible, to encourage them to increase their purchases of the goods we can sell to them.

This diversion of our purchases abroad to those countries that buy freely from us, and especially the British Empire, is a subject that deserves the most careful attention and study of our

1. Department of Trade and Commerce
2. Our Tariff Commission
3. Canadian Chambers of Commerce
4. Exporters and Importers generally, for it is certain that for many years until increased population in this country brings about a large increase in our Domestic trade, we must be an exporter of the large surplus of grain and agricultural produce that we have from year to year, and it would seem that a more careful analysis of our trading possibilities with other countries should enable us to spread our purchases very much to our advantage.

STAFF:

I would not have you leave this Annual Meeting with the thought that the credit for the fine results obtained during the past year belong to the chief executives of the Bank. The great volume of our business is obtained by those who represent us in the field of our operations. Competition among Banks is keen, and without the support of a fine body of earnest conscientious men who know their business and understand how to render acceptable service to our friends, we would not get far in the development of business. We like to reward these services in a tangible way, but to this meeting I would like to express my thanks to every member of the Staff for the fine co-operation and keen interest they have given to the business of the Bank during the past year.
