CANADIAN WESTINGHOUSE COMPANY, LIMITED

FOURTEENTH ANNUAL REPORT

DECEMBER 31ST, 1917

The Directors submit herewith the usual certified Balance Sheet of the Company's affairs at the close of the fiscal year ended December 31st, and a statement of the Profit and Loss Account, showing earnings for the year 1917, amounting to $1,011,276.12, from which the sum of $165,000.00 has been written off for general depreciation, leaving net profits of $846,276.12.

The authorized capital stock of the Company was increased by Supplementary Letters Patent dated January 5th, 1917, from $5,000,000.00 to $10,000,000.00. Of this increase the shareholders were offered the privilege of subscribing at par for $1,250,000.00 new shares, in the proportion of one new share for each four shares held, resulting in the paid up capital being increased on March 1st to $6,229,400.00. Co-incident with this offering a dividend of 25% on the then capital stock of $5,000,000.00 was declared payable on March 1st, out of the accumulated surplus earnings of the Company since its inception, covering a period of twelve years.

During the year quarterly dividends at the rate of seven per cent. per annum and an extra dividend of one per cent. were paid on the capital stock of $6,229,400.00, amounting to $498,352.00 leaving a balance of $847,924.12 carried forward to the credit of Profit and Loss Account.

The business aspect of the first half of the past year was a continued activity at high pressure in execution of previously placed orders for war supplies. In the latter portion of the year, with the realization that for reasons entirely apart from the record of successful performance made by the manufacturers of Canada, further allotments on a like scale would not be forthcoming in the immediate future, a general curtailment of operations took place which was the first lull in a continued strain of more than two years.

These circumstances found your Company with a somewhat greater than normal accumulation of orders booked for its standard lines of apparatus, and, with completion of its Munitions work, successful attention was given to expanding output of this regular product.

During the year, in fulfillment of the obligation always assumed by your Company to produce apparatus more efficient and more rugged for the purposes of its clients, notable advances have been made in the Engineering and Constructional features of its products: and as to workmanship, the established high standards have been fully maintained.

In arriving at the ultimate financial results of the year, an accurate and conservative inventory of all materials and products has been made, the prices applied being cost or market price according to which was lower, due allowance being also made for obsolescence.

The operating and directing forces in all departments of the organization have continued in evidence their loyal and efficient services.

By Order of the Board,

H. H. WESTINGHOUSE,
Chairman
