August 9th, 1928.

Wilder Penfield Esq: M.D.
Eichen Allee 3,
Obernigk (bei Breslau)
Germany.

My dear Penfield,

Your letter of July 22nd arrived just as I was sending off one to you, and I acknowledged it.

I now enclose a cheque to your order from Dr. Rexford of $500. on behalf of his Mother, and thoroughly approve of your purchase of a good microscope. You do well, also, to get instruments made. Be sure and cable me if you want further credit from the University for advantageous purchases. Get the books that you want. I will guarantee that the Budget will cover it.

The particulars given in my last letter about Dr. Rexford's microscope will probably be sufficient to allow you to buy the lenses and bring them home with you. I think, on the whole, I had better instruct the University to send you a further credit of $500. but this last purchase Dr. Rexford expects to pay for himself.

I was glad to hear that Cone found he could learn something in London. His charts will be useful.

You can easily stop in the C.P.R. Hotel until you get a house, but we could probably find, easily, a less expensive place. I suppose there is nothing that we could do in the matter of choosing a house for you?

I was delighted to hear that Mrs. Penfield and you had that trip and especially pleased to reflect that she was getting a little fun out of it and not simply acting as materfamilias.

I have, I think, two pituitary cases waiting for you. We shall do our best to line up material.

Yours sincerely,

Edward Archibald
