

McGILL UNIVERSITY
MONTREAL, CANADA

February 22nd, 1943.

Dear Dr. Penfield,

Thank you very much indeed for the reports which accompanied your letter of February 11th. My study of them was delayed somewhat by a trip to Minneapolis, but I have today gone through both your own report and Dr. Kershman's with a great deal of care. They seem to me to set forth the situation in admirable terms, and I am taking the liberty of forwarding copies with the attached letters to the people most concerned. Ian Mackenzie and Brigadier Meakins have already indicated that they wish to see me when I am in Ottawa next Friday, and I assume that this is one of the subjects on the agenda, so that it will be very useful to have your report in their hands before the discussion begins.

As soon as any definite information comes to me I naturally want to talk the matter over with you again, and meanwhile, with best personal wishes, I remain,

Cordially yours,

A handwritten signature in dark ink, appearing to read "J. Corbin", with a large, sweeping flourish extending to the right and a horizontal line underneath.

Dr. W. Penfield,
Neurological Institute.