

MINUTES OFFICERS' MESS

July 2nd, 1940.

The first regular meeting of the Officers' mess of the No.1 Neurological Hospital was held at Thursley Camp, Surrey, England at 1845 hours. President A.B.J. O'Neill was in the chair. Also present were Lt. Col. C.E. Cross, Major H.H. Hyland, Capts. Bentum, Boddington, Boulden, Childe, Davis, Hanson, Humphreys, & McCormick.

Mess Rules were adopted.

It was moved by Capt Hanson and seconded by Major Hyland that a gratuity of 10 shillings per month be paid to each of the two barmen. Motion carried.

The Chair suggested that Capts. Humphreys and McCormick be appointed auditors. Carried.

The Secretary treasurer was instructed to write a letter of thanks to the Manager of H. & G. Simonds, Limited, Reading for the donation of furniture to the Mess. He was also instructed to communicate with Dr. Wilder Penfield of Montreal, P.Q., to acquaint him with the activities of the Mess and thank him for the purchasing of necessary equipment through the Montreal Fund. -HNP

There being no further business the meeting adjourned.
