Dear Helen, Wide and Family:

Hope this will find you all happily settled.
We are getting something of a thrill out of your crusading ourselves.

Dickie is getting along nicely, and we hope we are about free from illnesses.

I just received a letter from Francis, in reply to one of mine hoping that he would attend the Medical Convention in May with Priscilla and as many of his family as possible. He says they are planning to come, and we are looking forward to their visit with much pleasure.

I received the executed Will and the registered letter containing the deposit cards. At this writing the regulations for payment of the awards have not yet been issued by the Treasury Department, - neither have the forms been printed.
I am enclosing a letter addressed to you in our care from Chandler C. Anderson, advising you that printing lawyers will not be permitted to get away with excessive fees. I have written Commissioner Anderson, as per enclosed letter, so that you need not pay any attention to the Commissioner's letter. I will write you just as soon as we get a copy of the regulations and the blanks for making the claim.

I forgot to tell you above that I also received the key to your safe deposit box.

Mae and the family join me in love and best of good wishes to you all.

P.S. Dickie was operated on for double mastoid and is getting along fine according to doctor. Paul.
