Dear Wide:

We are delighted at the prospect of seeing you. Wouldn't it be possible for Helen and the children to come down and visit with us while you are in Baltimore? I will be trying a case March 5th and March 6th. I will not be through with the case before 3 o'clock on March 6th. The 7th and 8th I have open. It will surely be good to see you. We are delighted with your plans. This future for you looks bright to me.

Incidentally, you may know that the House and the Senate have both passed a bill authorizing the payment of your $15,000. The Senate made some changes in the House bill and the bill is now in conference. As soon as the conferees agree and both Houses accept the report, it will go to the President. I really hope that it will be signed by the President and become a law within ten days. Of course, I may be mistaken.

Mae and I were congratulating ourselves after the Christmas festivities that our children had escaped everything including colds up to then. A few days later, Barbara contracted scarlet fever. You can imagine that we were pretty much frightened about it on account of the youth of the rest of the regiment, but we are very happy in the fact that all the others escaped it and Barbara came through it very nicely and has been back in school now for two weeks. We sincerely hope that you are all well.

Love to you all from us all.
